Dear Dave:

I am enclosing herewith a clipping which appeared in last night's Philadelphia Evening Bulletin. I am wondering whether the change came about because of the matters we are working on.

Sincerely,

Bill

CIA Official Named
To State Dept. Post

Washington, March 3—(AP)—G. Marvin Gentile, an official of the Central Intelligence agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation between 1946 and 1952, when he joined the CIA. He served CIA in "various executive capacities having to do with security matters," a State Department announcement said.
